To

D. M. NARASINGA RAO, Esq., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to Government of Mysore,
GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Technical Printing Class has now been working nearly two months. There are twenty students on the roll, being the maximum number advertised for. The attendance of the students is most satisfactory and very encouraging since the average has been uniformly as high as 17 per day. Nineteen students attend on most days. They have made ~~mark~~ satisfactory progress and appear to be keen and interested in their work.

Theoretical instruction is of course given by me and the Sub-Assistant Superintendents by turns, but practical instruction cannot be continuously supervised by any of us owing to other official work to attend to. I therefore now feel the urgent necessity of appointing a Foreman to supervise the practical work of the class under our direction, and I beg to propose that a Foreman on Rs.30-2-40 and an attendant on Rs.8/- per month may be kindly sanctioned for the class.

In this connection, I beg to submit that the duties of the Sub-Assistant Superintendents have increased on account of the attention they have to bestow on the instruction of not only the students of the Printing Class but also the employees of the Press as well as on the technical management of the Press. They have to attend in the mornings for teaching such of the employees who are desirous to appear for the Madras Technical Examination and for looking after the work of the Press as well, which has - increased and become so emergent of late that - without working in the early mornings it is impos--sible to cope with it. In fact, the machines - have been running uninterruptedly in this way for the past six months, and one of the Sub-Assistant Superintendents has therefore been obliged to attend in the mornings ever since.

I am therefore of opinion that it is only due to them that they should be given an - allowance in recognition of this work, and I propose that an allowance of at least Rs.50/- each per month may be granted. I solicit early orders in the matter.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Superintendent,

Government Press.
